Bridging the Funding Gap

Opioid addiction affects everyone regardless of their economic or social status. Many women struggling with opioid use are unable to receive treatment because they cannot afford it. House of Hope believes everyone deserves substance use disorder treatment regardless of their ability to pay.

Through grants and private donations, we can help cover treatment costs! Our unfunded women's resource pool enables House of Hope to cover payment gaps in treatment, enabling the best and most consistent treatment possible.

Please donate to our unfunded women's resource pool today to support women striving for new lives in recovery by clicking the button below!
