September's News Highlight

We’d like to offer a huge thank you to everyone that stopped by our booth for the 2019 Salt Lake County Recovery Day. We are so grateful for the time, energy, and support of everyone that contributed to the event’s massive success. Most of all we are thankful for the strength of all the women in recovery and their loved ones. Remember, this day has been and always will be for YOU!

Community Update

The Salt Lake County District Attorney has filed a motion on behalf of over 12,000 people to have their prior drug convictions reduced. Click the button below to find out if your conviction has been submitted for reduction.

House of Hope on KRCL's RadioActive

---

This past month, KRCL's RadioActive graciously welcomed House of Hope to speak about the launch of our Nesting Place campaign. Rourk Baird, House of Hope's clinical director, and Josie White, House of Hope's development specialist, shared programming and treatment details. However, it was House of Hope alumnae, Kelsie, who stole the show through sharing her inspiring story of hope in recovery! To hear Kelsie's story and to learn more about the Nesting Place, click the button below.
